

Mike Cash

VP, Support Services

Mike, VP, Support Services, manages corporate service and support deliverables and enhancements. Additionally, he leads the Vendor and Health Plan Services, Technical and Operational Support, Field Services, and Training and Product Support teams. When Mike joined RealMed in 2009 he served as Vice President, National Accounts, leading the management and growth of the national provider segment base.

Prior to joining RealMed, Mike served as Director, Professional Services for McKesson Provider Technologies, where he led the Enterprise Resource Planning Services that consisted of Financial, Materials and Human Resource management solutions.

Mike holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Bradley University.